Sheriff Beeman indicates previously, through CARES Act funding, his Department purchased body cameras and that he would be presenting at the next Commissioners' meeting a new contract with Axon concerning those body cameras for their consideration.

Jeff Graham, County Attorney, presents to the Commissioners a proposed Release of Liability requested by owners of property utilized as warming centers by the County for their consideration.

Motion: To add into the Minutes the Memorandum of Understanding sent out last year concerning the warming centers and to adopt the Release of Liability, Waiver and Complete Hold Harmless Agreement, as presented.

Moved: President Richwine

Seconded: Olivia Pratt

Motion Passed unanimously

Darlene Likens indicates that she had previously requested the County Attorney to look into whether or not the County had enacted a Noise Ordinance. County Attorney Graham indicated that he had found no record of a Noise Ordinance adopted by Madison County. There was, however, a Nuisance Ordinance adopted. County Attorney Graham indicated he would draft a Noise Ordinance and present it for consideration of the Commissioners at their next meeting.

Motion to Adjourn
